FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JEMTEC ESP AGREEMENT EXTENDED UNTIL APRIL 30, 2008

November 13, 2007 - JEMTEC (JTC – TSX) (“JEMTEC” or the “Company”), the leading provider of integrated technology systems for community based corrections in Canada, has received notice that the Ontario Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Service has decided to extend the present Services Agreement until April 30, 2008. This is a material event for JEMTEC as this Services Agreement accounts for approximately 87% of the Company’s revenue. The Company intends to bid on the new Request for Proposal. JEMTEC has provided these tools for the Ministry in Ontario since 1996.

Established in 1981, JEMTEC holds exclusive rights for a variety of offender community control technologies and is the leading provider of community offender monitoring solutions to Canadian Corrections. The common shares of JEMTEC trade through the facilities of the TSX Venture Exchange under the symbol (JTC).
